The International Monetary Fund (IMF), having become more vocal again on the background of its own reform - a sign of recognition of its own incapacity - war... -- Corroborating the foregoing, we can conclude the following: the crises overlap, sometimes they preface one another, they forestall each other, just as the great financial crisis of 2007 forestalled the current economic-military one. These crises have ... -- They then continued with a massive drop in confidence, in full swing, both at the level of the business sector and at the level of consumers, both responding by restricting their expenditure. The United States government and some governments in Europe... -- But returning to the financial crisis of 2007, we note that starting from the following year, we witness an intervention of the increasing state, the compensatory type, which comes to make up for the shortcomings created by the crisis in the economy, ... -- The growing interference of the state is all the more legitimate as it targets social protection measures. -- The regional fiscal policy appears in the background now as a determinant of state intervention in member countries of the European Union. As a result, the effect of fiscal competition is gaining ground in the new context, causing budgetary reactions ... -- If we refer to Romania, characterized until recently by a reasonable intervention, one of the lowest in Europe, we can appreciate that it is possible to increase it to compensate for the effects of the economic-military crisis. -- Practical Issues Regarding Compliance with Decision-Making Transparency by Local Public Authorities -- The Crime of Money Laundering Committed by the Author of the Principal Crime. The Consequences of Decriminalization -- The Economic as a Configuration Factor of the Law -- Due Process in the Light of the Defendants' Right to Remain Silent in Cases of Economic Crimes -- Tax Consolidation in the Direct Corporate Tax System -- Extradition. #### Sommario/riassunto

This volume contains the scientific papers presented at the Twelfth International Conference „Challenges of Business Law in the Third Millennium" that was held on 25 November 2022 in online format on Zoom. The conference is organized each year by the Society of Juridical and Administrative Sciences. The scientific studies included in this volume are grouped into three chapters: Business Interactions Specific to Public Law; Private Law and Business Law, an Essential Duo; Modern Developers of Business Law: International Law and European Union Law. The present volume is addressed to practitioners, researchers, students and PhD candidates in juridical sciences, who are interested in recent developments and prospects for development in the field of business law at international and national level.
