Sommario/riassunto

In Paragraph 12 der UN-Kinderrechtskonvention ist das Recht auf Partizipation verankert: Kinder und Jugendliche haben das Recht, in allen sie betreffenden Angelegenheiten entsprechend ihrem Alter und ihrer Reife mitzuwirken und ihre Meinung zu äußern. Der Band untersucht dieses Recht auf Partizipation in der Heimerziehung. Die Wirkungsweisen von Beteiligungs- und Beschwerdeverfahren in stationären Einrichtungen werden anhand zentraler Ergebnisse einer empirischen Untersuchung bewertet. Wie funktionieren diese Verfahren? Es werden die wichtigsten Möglichkeiten und Hindernisse bei der Umsetzung der Partizipationsrechte von Kindern erörtert. Article 12 of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child establishes the right to participation: children and adolescents are entitled to participate and to have their views taken into account in all issues affecting them in accordance to their age and maturity. The volume explores this right to participation in residential care. The impact of participation and complaint procedures in residential care facilities are evaluated by means of crucial results from an empirical study. How do these participation and complaints procedures work? The authors discuss crucial facilitators and barriers with regard to the implementation of children’s rights to participate.
