Sommario/riassunto	The book 'Emerging Dynamics of Relations: Regional Cooperation vs Global Geopolitics' explores the multifaceted relationship between India and Afghanistan, edited by Rajeev Kumar Singh and Shantesh Kumar Singh. It delves into the historical, political, economic, and cultural interactions that shape the ties between these two nations. The work analyzes the delicate balance between regional cooperation and global geopolitical challenges, emphasizing India's strategic interests in Afghanistan amidst shifting power dynamics. Contributors provide insights into India's development assistance and its role in fostering stability and development in Afghanistan. The book also examines the impact of global power contestation on regional dynamics and India's strategic maneuvering. Aimed at policymakers, scholars, and practitioners, it offers a comprehensive understanding of the evolving dynamics in South Asian politics and international relations.
