Sommario/riassunto	Security Dialogue seeks to combine contemporary theoretical analysis with challenges to public policy across a wide ranging field of security studies. The journal encourages reflection on new and traditional security issues such as globalization, nationalism, ethnic conflict and civil war, information technology, biological and chemical warfare, resource conflicts, pandemics, global terrorism, non-state actors and environmental and human security. It promotes analysis of the normative dimensions of security, theoretical and practical aspects of identity and identity-based conflict, gender aspects of security and critical security studies
