

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910908374203321
Autore	Brown Philip
Titolo	Refugees and Housing : Policy, Practice and Lived Experience / / by Philip Brown, Santokh Gill, Jamie P. Halsall
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Cham : , : Springer Nature Switzerland : , : Imprint : Palgrave Macmillan, , 2024
ISBN	9783031747540 3031747542
Edizione	[1st ed. 2024.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (167 pages)
Altri autori (Persone)	GillSantokh HalsallJamie P
Disciplina	362.8783
Soggetti	Emigration and immigration - Social aspects Emigration and immigration Welfare economics Human geography Cultural geography Economics - Sociological aspects Economic geography Sociology of Migration Human Migration Social Economy Social and Cultural Geography Economic Sociology Economic Geography
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Nota di contenuto	1. Introduction -- 2. Refugees in the UK and the Right to Housing -- 3. Pathways Into Housing and Navigating First Steps -- 4. Housing 'Histories' of Refugees -- 5. The Role of Others in Accessing Housing -- 6. Discrimination and Social Harm -- 7. Conclusion.
Sommario/riassunto	Housing has always had a close association with the lives refugees lead in exile and the settlement of refugees is, at its core, a housing issue. Refugees move from their home, perhaps through various other places, to finally arrive in a nation-state which provides them with security of status and the promise of assistance to continue their lives. At the foundation of this promise of refuge is the provision of a safe and secure home. Despite this, the knowledge base about housing and its significance in the lives of refugees is not fully understood and this risks understating the enormous impact housing has on the settlement of refugees more broadly. This book makes an important contribution to the literature on the relationship between sanctuary and housing. It draws on new empirical research to examine how refugees have transitioned through the housing system over the last three decades and how changes in policy and the routes into refugee status has mediated these experiences.

---