Sommario/riassunto	Globally, small and medium enterprises (SME) entrepreneurs were hit hard by the Covid-19 pandemic and subsequent measures such as lockdowns and market closures. Africa was no exception. This edited volume includes insights gathered during the 2021 NVAS Africa Day which had the theme: 'entrepreneurial responses to Covid-19 in Africa.' This volume shines a light on two broader themes: entrepreneurial intentions and entrepreneurial resilience in Africa in times of Covid-19.
