

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910947817003321
Autore	Zorzi Andrea
Titolo	Libertas e Libertates Nel Tardo Medioevo. Realtà Italiane Nel Contesto Europeo : Atti Del XVI Convegno Di Studi San Miniato 11-13 Ottobre 2018
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Florence : , : Firenze University Press, , 2024 ©2024
ISBN	9791221503821
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (280 pages)
Collana	Centro Di Studi Sulla Civiltà Del Tardo Medioevo San Miniato Series ; ; v. 16
Soggetti	Liberty - History - To 1500 Civil rights - Italy - History - To 1500 Civil rights - Europe - History - To 1500
Lingua di pubblicazione	Italiano
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Sommario/riassunto	The history of political freedom in Europe has long been articulated within a genealogical scheme that interprets the nature of contemporary freedom starting from its remote origins. This explains the adoption of a teleological approach: from the freedom of the ancients to that of the moderns; from positive to negative freedom; from libertas ecclesiae to religious tolerance. Awareness of the crisis of the great narrative of freedom invites us to broaden the field of analysis, rejecting a linear history of the notion and its expressions, less and less capable of accounting for the discontinuities and tensions between different meanings and models. The volume reintegrates the theme of freedom within the framework of the practices of political actors in the late Middle Ages, taking into consideration the multiple declinations of the ideas of freedom in Europe with a specific attention to the Italian realities.