Nota di contenuto	Introduction: Searching for a theology of the near-death experience -- A brief history of NDEs -- A deafening silence: theology and the NDE -- Defining the light: language, epistemology and the NDE -- Of plots and minds: neuroscience, narrative and the NDE -- Second sight? NDEs and the blind -- The RERC study -- Building bridges or fighting wars? Religion, spirituality and the future of near-death studies.
Sommario/riassunto	This dramatic and sustained response to decades of research into near-death experiences (NDEs) is the first book to credibly bridge the gap between the competing factions of science and spirituality. Neither a religious argument touting NDEs as hard evidence for God, nor a scientific rebuke to religious interpretations, it balances investigation of these much-reported yet baffling phenomena, and brings fresh urgency to the study of our hopes for a life beyond.
