

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910953485003321
Autore	Fahlgren Siv
Titolo	Normalization and "outsiderhood" : feminist readings of a neoliberal welfare state // book editors, Siv Fahlgren, Anders Johansson & Diana Mulinari
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[U.A.E.] , : Bentham eBooks, [2011]
ISBN	9781608052790 1608052796
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (130 p.)
Collana	Rethinking research and professional practices in terms of relationality, subjectivity and power
Altri autori (Persone)	FahlgrenSiv JohanssonAnders MulinariDiana <1954->
Disciplina	330.12209
Soggetti	Neoliberalism Feminism Well-being
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	pt. 1. Doing the normal : exploring institutional practice -- pt. 2. What the normal does : exploring institutional discourses -- pt. 3. Resisting academic normality : a room of our own.
Sommario/riassunto	This volume presents an illuminating analysis of the ways in which normalization processes and practices operate in a welfare state in an age of neoliberalism. This informative book problematizes the meaning of the phrase 'normalization processes and practices', that for an Anglophone audience may smack of functionalism. The historical context of the deliberate adoption of normalization processes and practices in Sweden in the post-World War II era was, in the first instance, an expression of the inclusivity designed to decrease inequalities and to achieve social justice. However all the contr