

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910953845103321
Autore	Francis Vievee
Titolo	Blue-tail fly / / Vievee Francis
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Detroit, Mich., : Wayne State University Press, 2006
ISBN	9780814335215 0814335217
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (89 p.)
Collana	Made in Michigan writers series
Disciplina	811/.6
Soggetti	African American soldiers Mexican War, 1846-1848 United States History Civil War, 1861-1865 Poetry
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di contenuto	Cover -- Contents -- The Scale of Empire -- AFTERMATH -- 1880, The Binding Tie -- The Finishing Thoughts of Festus Spencer as He Looks into the Camera -- I -- Frederick Douglass Speaks before the Anti-Mexican War Abolitionists -- Ample Cause of War -- General Taylor Convinces Himself That He Is for War -- Doubt -- Letter to the Governor of Texas -- Notes from Officer Hitchcock's Lost Leather Journal -- Liberation -- By the end -- Three Hundred and Seventy-Two Miles from Home -- Pokagon Accepts Colonel Taylor's Invitation -- Colonel Zachary Taylor Has Pokagon for Tea -- The Escarpment -- In Private Conversation: Buchanan to Like Minds -- The Book Speaks of Pretenders -- South of Houston -- II -- Civil Beginnings -- Darling Wife -- Grey Jebediah -- The Bone Boiler -- Shadows -- 1864, Fragments of a Camp near Yorktown -- 1864, A Pocket Full of Rye -- Snake Swamp -- 1863, Walt Whitman Reads to the Limbless, Dying -- Linsey-Woolsey -- 1864, Dear Mother -- Gettysburg: Blue and Grey -- A Singular Dispersion over Franklin, Tennessee -- Lincoln Dreams of Sarah, the Servant -- "If Not for You" -- 1863, Detroit Riots, Again -- 1864, Dear Son -- III -- Private Athens Descries -- Hannibal of Athens, Georgia -- White Glove Test -- Private Smith's Primer -- Br'er Rabbit in Chickamauga -- Drummer Boy -- Interview: Survivor, Fort Pillow -- A Second Dream of Sarah -- Nigger Pine -- Lincoln Speaks after the

Sommario/riassunto

A poetic treatment of the period of American history between the beginning of the Mexican War and the end of the Civil War, by Michigan poet Vievee Francis. The title of Blue-Tail Fly comes from an antebellum song commonly known as "Jimmy Crack Corn." The blue-tail fly is a supposedly insignificant creature that bites the horse that bucks and kills the master. In this collection, poet Vievee Francis gives voice to "outsiders"-from soldiers and common folk to leading political figures-who play the role of the blue-tail fly in the period of American history between the Mexican American War and the Civil War. Through a diverse range of styles, characters, and emotions, Francis's poems consider the demands of war, protest and resistance to it, and the cross-cultural exchanges of wartime. More than a narrowly themed text, Blue-Tail Fly is a book of balances, weighing the give-and-take of people and cultures in the arena of war. For lovers of poetry and those interested in American history, Blue-Tail Fly will illustrate the complexities of the American past and future.
