Autore	Parsons Robert <1546-1610.>
Titolo	A quiet and sober reckoning vwith M. Thomas Morton [[electronic resource]] : somewhat set in choler by his aduersary P.R. concerning certaine imputations of wilfull falsities objected to the said T.M. in a treatise of P.R. intituled Of mitigation, some part wherof he hath lately attempted to answere in a large preamble to a more ample reioynder promised by him. But heere in the meane space the said imputations are iustified, and confirmed, & with much increase of new vntruthe on his part returned vpon him againe: so as finally the reckoning being made, the verdict of the Angell, interpreted by Daniel, is verified of him. There is also adioyned a peece of a reckoning with Syr Edward Cooke, now L. Chief Iustice of the Co[m]mon Pleas, about a nihil dicit, & some other points vttered by him in two late preambles, to his sixt and seauenth partes of Reports
