- Sommario/riassunto Dans son livre L'ame desarmee, essai sur le declin de la culture generale, le philosophe Allan Bloom ecrivait: « La question qui se pose a tout jeune etre humain- "Qui suis-je?" - et le besoin puissant de se conformer a l'imperatif de l'oracle de Delphes- "Connais-toi toi-meme" - qui est congenital en chacun de nous signifient en premier lieu: "Qu'est-ce que l'homme?"... La culture generale donne acces a ces reponses, dont plusieurs vont a l'encontre de notre nature et de notre epoque. L'homme pourvu de culture generale est capable de ne pas s'en tenir aux reponses faciles... Il est certes ridicule de croire que ce qu'on apprend dans les livres represente l'alpha et l'omega de l'education, mais la lecture est toujours necessaire, en particulier a une epoque ou les exemples vivants de valeurs elevees sont rares.» Inscrits dans le meme mouvement, nous presentons ici des reflexions envisagees du point de vue de professeurs, dont la mission est de doter leurs etudiants d'une culture generale en tentant de viser un ideal de perfection humaine sans jamais perdre de vue la situation contemporaine. A l'heure de la politisation de l'education, avec des formules inspirees de theories a la mode telle la «pedagogie inclusive», en songeant a la course effrenees des penseurs de l'ecole pour adapter celle-ci aux besoins immediats du monde du travail ou aux tendances societates du moment, ne faut-il pas s'interroger? L'education superieure remplit-elle son mandat? Favorise-t-elle un milieu privilegie d'education liberale? Qu'en est-il aujourd'hui de l'idee d'universite?

Sommario/riassunto	This distinctive volume expands our understanding of couple resilience by identifying and exploring specific mechanisms unique to intimate relationships that facilitate positive adaptation to life challenges. Committed partnerships represent a unique form of relational alliance that offers an opportunity and challenge to go beyond the self - to develop as individuals and as a relationship. The contributors to this volume represent a range of perspectives that integrate conventional relationship science and innovative empirical and theoretical work on the importance of meaning-making, narrative construction, intersubjectivity, forgiveness, and positive emotion in couple life. The volume also offers a unique anchor point - 'We-ness' as it relates to the intersection between shared, and personal identity and well-being. Under-examined relational contexts such as resilience among LGBT partners and sexual resilience during illness adds further refinement of thought and application. .
