Sommario/riassunto	In 1967, Guitar Player broke new ground as the first-ever magazine devoted to all things guitar, and it has since become the stnadrad by which all others are judged. ... The book gives the ultimate insider's view into the magazine's evolution from a 32-page startup into an industry leader and the go-to resource for guitarists of all musical styles, from rock and jazz, to blues, folk, and classical."--Back cover.
