Sommario/riassunto	Modern woman was made between the French Revolution and the end of the First World War. In this time, the women of Europe crafted new ideas about their sexuaity, motherhood, the home, the politics of femininity, and their working roles. They faced challenges about what a woman should be and how she should act. From domestic ideology to women's suffrage, this book charts the contests for woman's identity in the epoch-shaping nineteenth century.

	Sommario/riassunto	This book is a collection of best selected research papers presented at the International Conference on Artificial Intelligence, Communication Technologies & Smart Cities (ICACS 2025). This book contains research articles on rapidly evolving landscape of smart cities, the convergence of artificial intelligence, advanced communication technologies, and urban planning which heralds a new era of integrated infrastructure. This book is structured to guide readers from fundamental concepts to advanced applications through real-world case studies, demonstrating the transformative impact of AI and communication technologies in urban environments.
