

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910461947403321
Autore	Block Kristen
Titolo	Ordinary lives in the early Caribbean [[electronic resource] ] : religion, colonial competition, and the politics of profit / / Kristen Block
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Athens, : University of Georgia Press, 2012
ISBN	1-280-59604-X 9786613625878 0-8203-4375-7
Descrizione fisica	xiii, 309 p. : ill., maps
Collana	Early American places
Disciplina	972.903
Soggetti	Religion and social problems - Caribbean Area - History Slavery and the church - Caribbean Area - History Electronic books. Caribbean Area Biography Caribbean Area Economic conditions Caribbean Area History 17th century Caribbean Area History 18th century Caribbean Area Race relations History Caribbean Area Social conditions
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Isabel. -- "If her soul was condemned, it would be the authorities' fault" -- Contesting the boundaries of antichristian cruelty in Cartagena de Indias -- Imperial intercession and master-slave relations in Spanish Caribbean hinterlands -- Law, religion, social contract, and slavery's daily negotiations -- Nicolas. -- "To live and die as a Catholic Christian" -- Northern European Protestants in the Spanish Caribbean -- Empire, bureaucracy, and escaping the Spanish inquisition -- Conversion, coercion, and tolerance in Old and New Worlds -- Henry. -- "Such as will truck for trade with darksome things" -- Cromwellian political economy and the pursuit of New World promise -- Plunder, masculinity and the politics of economic exclusion -- Anxieties of interracial alliances, black resistance, and the specter of slavery -- Yaff

& Nell. -- "He hath made all nations of one blood" -- Quakers, slavery, and the challenges of radical universalism -- Evangelization and insubordination : authority and stability in Quaker plantations -- The Protestant ethic and the Society of Friends : ambiguous Caribbean legacy -- Conclusion : cynicism and redemption. -- Religion, empire and the Atlantic moral economy at the turn of the 18th century.

2. Record Nr.	UNINA9910959275303321
Autore	Weinberg Darin
Titolo	Of others inside : insanity, addiction, and belonging in America // Darin Weinberg ; foreword by Bryan S. Turner
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Philadelphia, : Temple University Press, 2005
ISBN	9786611094003 9781281094001 1281094005 9781592134052 159213405X
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (248 p.)
Disciplina	362.2/0973
Soggetti	Mentally ill - United States - Social conditions Addicts - United States - Social conditions Homeless persons - Mental health - United States Homeless persons - Mental health services - United States Homelessness - United States Marginality, Social - United States
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 205-218) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Foreword by Bryan S. Turner; Acknowledgments; 1 Introduction: Beyond Objectivism and Subjectivism in the Sociology of Mental Health; Part I: A History of Insanities and Addictions Among Marginalized Americans; 2 Setting the Stage; 3 Addictions and Insanities: Two Fields and Their Phenomena; II A Tale of Two Programs; 4 Canyon House; 5 Twilights; 6 Conclusion; References; Index

Sommario/riassunto

There is little doubt among scientists and the general public that homelessness, mental illness, and addiction are inter-related. In Of Others Inside, Darin Weinberg examines how these inter-relations have taken form in the United States. He links the establishment of these connections to the movement of mental health and addiction treatment from redemptive processes to punitive ones and back again, and explores the connection between social welfare, rehabilitation, and the criminal justice system. Seeking to offer a new sociological understanding of the relationship between

---