

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910959891903321
Autore	Johnson Thomas Hoevet <1943->
Titolo	Two Toms : lessons from a Shoshone doctor / / Thomas H. Johnson and Helen S. Johnson
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Salt Lake City, : University of Utah Press, c2011
ISBN	1-60781-986-4
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	xi, 90 p
Altri autori (Persone)	JohnsonHelen S
Disciplina	978.7004/97457400922 B
Soggetti	Shoshoni Indians Indian physicians Indian religious leaders Anthropologists - Wyoming Shoshoni Indians - Social life and customs Intercultural communication - Wyoming Friendship - Wyoming Wind River Indian Reservation (Wyo.) Biography
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes index.
Nota di contenuto	The pink phone -- Hat and shoes -- Peyote -- Another way -- Tom the listener -- A visit with Bill Shakespeare -- Politics -- The sweat solution -- What I learned from Tom -- Glossary.
Sommario/riassunto	In 1969, Tom Wesaw was an 83-year-old Shoshone doctor and religious leader on the Wind River Reservation in Wyoming.He could no longer drive, which posed problems in making house calls.The arrival of young anthropologist Tom Johnson changed that.Johnson would drive Wesaw, and cook, pump water, and build fires for sweat lodges.