Sommario/riassunto	Bevolkingsprognoses vormen een onmisbaar element bij de voorbereiding van een beleid op langere termijn. Aangezien de Raad mede tot taak heeft op het gebied van toekomstonderzoek voorstellen te doen inzake het opheffen van structurele tekortkomingen en het bevorderen van bepaalde onderzoeken, heeft hij zich beraden over de mogelijkheden tot verbetering van bevolkingsprognose.

Population forecasts are an indispensable element in the preparation of a policy in the longer term. Since the Provisional Scientific Council for Government Policy is also responsible for making proposals in the area of future research into the elimination of structural shortcomings and the promotion of certain research, it has considered the possibilities of improving the population prognosis.
