

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910961405703321
Autore	Zimring Franklin E.
Titolo	American youth violence // Franklin E. Zimring
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York ; , : Oxford University Press, , 2023
ISBN	0-19-771833-7 1-280-47070-4 9786610470709 1-4237-6004-2 0-19-535290-4 1-60256-293-8
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (224 p.)
Collana	Studies in crime and public policy Oxford scholarship online
Disciplina	364.360973
Soggetti	Juvenile delinquency - Government policy - United States Violent crimes - Government policy - United States Juvenile justice, Administration of - United States
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Previously issued in print: 1998.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (pages 197-202) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Pt. I. Youth Violence in the 1990's. 1. The Perception of a Problem Is a Problem. 2. American Youth Violence - A Profile. 3. A Youth Violence Epidemic: Myth or Reality? 4. The Case of the Terrifying Toddlers -- Pt. II. Legal Policy Toward Youth Violence. 5. Some Basic Principles. 6. Firearms Policy for the Young. 7. "That Malice Which Is to Supply Age": Standards for Transfer to Criminal Court. 8. Adolescents Who Kill -- Pt. III. Two Larger Contexts. 9. Youth Violence and the Future of the Juvenile Court. 10. Youth Violence and Youth Policy.
Sommario/riassunto	This is an examination of adolescent violence in the United States as both a social phenomenon and a policy problem. Franklin Zimring, a scholar of law and crime, scrutinizes criminal statistics and demographic trends in order to authoritatively address public worries.