

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910961748403321
Autore	Wolfe Joel <1960->
Titolo	Autos and progress : the Brazilian search for modernity / / Joel Wolfe
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Oxford ; ; New York, : Oxford University Press, 2010
ISBN	0-19-979874-5 1-282-66126-4 9786612661266 0-19-972127-0
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (x, 269 p.) : ill., port
Disciplina	338.4/76292220981
Soggetti	Automobiles - Social aspects - Brazil - History - 20th century Transportation, Automotive - Social aspects - Brazil - History - 20th century Automobile industry and trade - Brazil - History - 20th century Social change - Brazil - History - 20th century Progress - History - 20th century Nationalism - Brazil - History - 20th century Political culture - Brazil - History - 20th century Brazil Social conditions 20th century Brazil Economic conditions 20th century Brazil Politics and government 20th century
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	First cars : curiosities of the elite -- The coming of tropical modernity : automobiles and the question of nation -- Americanism and Fordism : the search for a Brazilian El Dorado -- Nationalist development : Getulio Vargas and the integration of Brazil -- The multinational solution : Juscelino Kubitschek and the national auto industry -- From technocrats to democrats : automobility and citizenship -- Epilogue: Tropical modernity in a globalized space.
Sommario/riassunto	This work studies the automobile as both a tool and a cultural symbol of Brazil's status as a modern 'developed' nation. As such it addresses debates on state-making, the role of multi-national corporations in the region, middle-class consumerism, working-class politics, and much more.
