Titolo	The Bering Sea ecosystem / / Committee on the Bering Sea Ecosystem, Polar Research Board, Commission on Geosciences, Environment, and Resources, National Research Council
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Washington, D.C., : National Academy Press, 1996
ISBN	9786610192854 9780309176019 0309176018 9781280192852 1280192852 9780309552868 0309552869 9780585028873 0585028877
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (317 p.)
Disciplina	574.5/2636/0916451
Soggetti	Marine ecology - Bering Sea Ecosystem management - Bering Sea Marine resources conservation - Bering Sea
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 260-303).
Nota di contenuto	The Bering Sea Ecosystem -- Copyright -- Preface -- Contents -- Executive Summary -- CHANGES IN THE BERING SEA ECOSYSTEM -- CAUSE AND EFFECT IN THE BERING SEA: THE CASCADE HYPOTHESIS -- DIFFICULTIES IN OBTAINING INFORMATION -- RECOMMENDATIONS -- Research Recommendations -- Management and Institutional Recommendations -- Recommendation to Reverse Declines in Marine Mammals and Birds -- THE FUTURE -- 1 Introduction -- THE PROBLEM -- THIS STUDY -- 2 Marine Ecosystems: A Conceptual Framework -- CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK -- Ecosystems and the Concept of Order -- Cascading Trophic Interactions in Ecosystems -- The Effects of Climate on Structuring Marine Ecosystems -- Summary -- OCEANIC AND

Sommario/riassunto

The 12 member committee commissioned by the National Research Council reviewed research documents and heard presentations from a wide variety of sources and organizations while compiling this authoritative review of the Bering Sea ecosystem status and their recommendations for its preservation.
