Sommario/riassunto	"Mental Health and Social Problems is a textbook for social work students and practitioners. It explores the complicated relationship between mental conditions and societal issues as well as examining risk and protective factors for the prevalence, course, adaptation to and recovery from mental illness. The introductory chapter presents bio-psycho-social and life-modeled approaches to helping individuals and families with mental illness. The book is divided into two parts. Part I addresses specific social problems, such as poverty, oppression, racism, war, violence, and homelessness, identifying the factors which contribute to vulnerabilities and risks for the development of mental health problems, including the barriers to accessing quality services. Part II presents the most current empirical findings and practice knowledge about prevalence, diagnosis, assessment, and intervention options for a range of common mental health problems - including personality conditions, eating conditions and affective conditions. Focusing throughout upon mental health issues for children, adolescents, adults and older adults, each chapter includes case studies and web resources. This practical book is ideal for social work students who specialize in mental health"--Provided by publisher.

	Nota di contenuto	Towards a Distributed Modeling Process Based on Composite Models -- Change Propagation due to Uncertainty Change -- A Model-Based Synthesis Process for Choreography Realizability Enforcement -- On Extracting Feature Models from Sets of Valid Feature Combinations -- On the Empirical Evaluation of Fault Localization Techniques for Spreadsheets -- Quality of Merge-Refactorings for Product Lines -- Towards Understanding the Behavior of Classes Using Probabilistic Models of Program Inputs -- Discovering Branching Conditions from Business Process Execution Logs -- Exposing Behavioral Differences in Cross-Language API Mapping Relations -- Explicit-State Software

Model Checking Based on CEGAR and Interpolation -- Design Pattern-Based Extension of Class Hierarchies to Support Runtime Invariant Checks -- Augmenting Sequence Enumeration with String-Rewriting for Requirements Analysis and Behavioral Specification -- Scenario Realizability with Constraint Optimization -- Andromeda: Accurate and Scalable Security Analysis of Web Applications -- VerChor: A Framework for Verifying Choreographies -- Javanni: A Verifier for JavaScript -- Model-Based Implementation of Parallel Real-Time Systems -- A Grey-Box Approach for Automated GUI-Model Generation of Mobile Applications -- A Mechanized Model for CAN Protocols -- Enforcing QVT-R with mu-Calculus and Games -- Implementing QVT-R Bidirectional Model Transformations Using Alloy -- Abstraction and Training of Stochastic Graph Transformation Systems -- Discovering Math APIs by Mining Unit Tests -- POGen: A Test Code Generator Based on Template Variable Coverage in Gray-Box Integration Testing for Web Applications -- Testing with Inputs and Outputs in CSP.

Sommario/riassunto	This book constitutes the proceedings of the 16th International Conference on Fundamental Approaches to Software Engineering, FASE 2013, held as part of the European Joint Conference on Theory and Practice of Software, ETAPS 2013, which took place in Rome, Italy, in March 2013. The 25 papers presented in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from 112 submissions. They are organized in topical sections named: model-driven engineering; verification and validation; software comprehension; analysis tools; model-driven engineering: applications; model transformations; and testing.
