

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910962328003321
Autore	Schroeder Christopher L. <1970->
Titolo	Diverse by design : literacy education within multicultural institutions / / Christopher Schroeder
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Logan, Utah, : Utah State University Press, c2011
ISBN	9780874218077 0874218071
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (268 p.)
Disciplina	808/0420711 808.0420711
Soggetti	Hispanic Americans - Education (Higher) English language - Study and teaching - Spanish speakers Literacy - Social aspects - United States Hispanic Americans - Ethnic identity
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	pt. 1. The problems -- pt. 2. Everyday experiences at NEIU -- pt. 3. Connections and conclusions.
Sommario/riassunto	Diversity, despite what we say, disturbs us. In the U.S., we debate linguistic rights, the need for an official language, and educational policies for language minority students. On the one hand, we believe in the rights of individuals, including (at least in the academy) the right to one's own language. On the other hand, we sponsor a single common language, monolingual and standard, for full participation and communication in both the academy and in U.S. society. In Diverse by Design , Christopher Schroeder reports on an institutional case study conducted at a