

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910964167603321
Autore	Isles John
Titolo	Ark : poems // by John Isles
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Iowa City, : University of Iowa City, c2003
ISBN	9781587294457 1587294451
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (69 p.)
Collana	Kuhl House poets
Disciplina	811.6 811/.6
Soggetti	American poetry American literature
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	Part I; To a Pretending Leaf; Static Report; Carrion Days; Sirens; Out of the Past; Elegy for the Present Moment; Small Traveling Islands; General Trees; Part II; Covenant; West of Here, North of True; The Evangelist of Fish; City upon a Hill; Saint in the Wilderness; New World Narratives; The Old Hunting Grounds; The Night-Flier's Song; Western Landscape with Storm; Natural History; Every City; Part III; How the Dead Kiss; Part IV; The Blouse Keeps Opening; The Wounded Angel; Our Daughter; Impossible Garden; As One with Foot in Mouth; Like Freedom; Outlaws, According to the Movies In the Erogenous Zone of the Body PoliticNotes
Sommario/riassunto	John Isles's Ark is about the people and events that pass through a life, leaving a void; about finding a presence in that absence and waking up to the realities of the present moment. It is concerned, at its watery heart, with discovery and confrontation, uncovering and witnessing, whether it be the new world, "the world behind every blouse," or the tender mysteries that can only be seen through the eyes of belief: that which "starts the wild grasses trembling."With its deft maneuvers through both a historical and an emotional landscape, Ark speaks to us with a truly conte