Sommario/riassunto	The present volume offers twelve studies dealing with feminine figures in Gnosticism and Manichaeism. In Part One ("Images et symboles"), the Author unveils the hidden meaning of some feminine figures having played a role on the mythical scene of those trends. Some of these figures, borrowed from other traditions, have been deeply reworked by Gnostics or Manichees assuming thereby a new significance. An intermezzo ("Passages") investigates the presence of women names in titles preserved in the Nag Hammadi Library and the relationship between a female protagonist and a specific literary genre. Part Two ("Histoire et realite") reconstructs the portraits of some women, especially Manichaeans, to whom the historical inquiry gives life again, thanks to a fresh reading of first hand sources, as well of heresiological or archeological testimonies. Some of these studies have been previously published and have now been significantly updated and expanded. Some others are lectures on Feminine in Gnosticism and Manichaeism given by the Author in Sorbonne, Paris, since 1994. ***

Les douze etudes que rassemble ce volume abordent sous differentes facettes le personnage de la femme dans la gnose et dans le manicheisme. Dans la premiere partie (« Images et symboles »), l'Auteur dévoile la signification cachee de quelques figures feminines qui ont joue un role sur la scene du mythe. Si les auteurs gnostiques et manicheens ont emprunte certaines d'entre elles a d'autres traditions, ils ont toutefois remodele ces figures en profondeur en les chargeant d'une nouvelle signification. La deuxieme partie (« Passages ») s'interroge sur la presence de noms feminins dans les titres conserves de la bibliotheque de Nag Hammadi et sur la relation eventuelle entre une protagoniste feminine et le choix d'un genre litteraire. La troisieme partie (« Histoire et realite ») reconstruit les portraits de quelques femmes, surtout manicheennes, dont les traits effaces se precisent grace a une lecture originale de la documentation directe et des sources heresiologiques, grace aussi a l'apport de l'archeologie. Une partie de ces etudes, publiee auparavant, parait ici sous une forme largement amplifiee. D'autres reprennent les themes de conferences sur la femme dans le manicheisme, donnees par l'Auteur a la Sorbonne entre 1997 et 2002.
