

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910966168403321
Autore	Diaz David R. <1951->
Titolo	Barrio urbanism : Chicanos, planning, and American cities / / David Ralph Diaz
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York, : Routledge, 2005
ISBN	1-135-94319-2 9786610281961 1-135-94320-6 1-280-28196-0 0-203-02096-0
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (360 p.) : 20 b/w images and 5 tables
Disciplina	307.1/16/0896872073
Soggetti	Mexican Americans - History Urban policy - United States - History City planning - United States - History Land use, Urban - United States - History Hispanic American neighborhoods - History
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 317-332) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Early history of urban locational patterns, 1880-1950 -- Barrio logic and the consolidation of Chicanas/os in the city, 1950-1975 -- Transformation of barrios and the impact of reforms of racist real estate and banking industry practices -- Housing affordability : practical influence of local and federal policies -- Economic development in Chicana/o communities -- Open space, cultural programs and recreational resources -- Redevelopment policy in the barrio -- The history of confrontational urban politics : a reliance on social movements -- Land use conflicts and the politics of environmental justice -- The political and social transformation of California -- The new cities of the Southwest -- The challenge to future political coalitions and the question of land use policy -- Chicanas/os and the urban challenges of the 21st century.
Sommario/riassunto	Taking into account the author's consideration of this subject from a planning and urban policy perspective, this book charts the history of the largest ethnic population in America.
