Sommario/riassunto	In Statu Nascendi is a peer-reviewed journal that aspires to be a world-class scholarly platform encompassing original academic research dedicated to the circle of Political Philosophy, Cultural Studies, Theory of International Relations, Foreign Policy, and the political Decision-making process. The journal investigates specific issues through a socio-cultural, philosophical, and anthropological approach to raise a new type of civic awareness about the complexity of contemporary crisis, instability, and warfare situations, where the "stage-of-becoming" plays a vital role. Issue 2020:1 comprises, amongst others, the following interviews & articles: Zoran Kojcic & Piotr Pietrzak: Interview with Dr. Zoran Kojcic on his unique form of philosophical counselling Dimitris M. Moschos: Paul Tillich's Critical and Political Theology and his Critique of Modernity Venera Russo: The Phenomenology of Women. On Female Discourse in Julia Kristeva's and

Simone de Beauvoir's work Venera Russo: Cross-language Relation.
The Implications of Relativity in Translation and vice versa Anastasia Pranindita & Anak Agung Banyu Perwita: The Republic of Korea – United States of America's "Strategic Patience": A counter measurement of the Alliance in Responding to Democratic People's Republic of Korea' Nuclear Development Program (2013 – 2017) Eliza Campbell: Dueling with Disinformation: Disinformation and Information and Communication Technologies in the Middle East Piotr Pietrzak: How would Realists Interpret People Republic of China's wish to "cultivate the image of a responsible great power"?
