

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| 1. Record Nr. | UNINA9910966547803321 |
| Titolo | Reform and transformation in Eastern Europe : Soviet-type economics on the threshold of change // edited by Janos Matyas Kovacs and Marton Tardos |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa | London ; ; New York, : Routledge in association with the Institut fur die Wissenschaften vom Menschen, Vienna, 1992 |
| ISBN | 1-134-92025-3 0-429-22914-3 1-280-18274-1 0-203-28329-5 9786610182749 0-203-16769-4 |
| Edizione | [1st ed.] |
| Descrizione fisica | 1 online resource (347 p.) |
| Altri autori (Persone) | KovacsJanos Matyas TardosMarton |
| Disciplina | 338.947 |
| Soggetti | Europe, Eastern Economic conditions 1989- Europe, Eastern Economic policy 1989- Soviet Union Economic conditions 1985-1991 Soviet Union Economic policy 1986-1991 |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese |
| Formato | Materiale a stampa |
| Livello bibliografico | Monografia |
| Note generali | Description based upon print version of record. |
| Nota di bibliografia | Includes bibliographical references and index. |
| Nota di contenuto | Book Cover; Title; Contents; List of contributors; Prologue; Crossing the threshold; Reform economics and economic theory and the west; missed opportunities; Introduction to Part I; The 'socialist calculation debate' and reform discussions in socialist countries; The reform of Soviet socialism as a search for systemic rationality: A systems theoretical view; An organizational theory of the socialist economy; Reform economics and western economic theory: Unexploited opportunities; Some institutional failures of socialist market economies; a dynamic market and institutional theory approach On firms, hierarchies and economic reformsSoviet reforms and western neo-classical economics; Reform economics and economic theory and the east; separation from Stalinism incomplete; Introduction to Part II; |

Economic reform in a bargaining economy; From revisionism to pragmatism: Sketches to a self-portrait of a 'reform economist'; Soviet economic reform in historical perspective; Reform economics and bureaucracy; Reformability of the 'objective economic laws' of socialism; Between reform and transformation; la recherche; Introduction to Part III

The theoretical and psychological obstacles to market-oriented reform in China; The scope of economic reforms in socialist countries; The political conditions of economic reform in socialism; Opposition against market-type reforms in centrally-planned economies; Macroeconomic policy for the transitional reforms in the centrally-planned economies; The property rights in Hungary; Epilogue; Compassionate doubts about reform economics (economic science, ideology, politics); Index

Sommario/riassunto

Can the economics of Eastern Europe make the dramatic transition from centrally-planned to market-led economics? This book tries to understand the intellectual background behind this change and the problems of managing it.
