

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910967213603321
Autore	Tamminen Terry
Titolo	Lives per gallon : the true cost of our oil addiction / / Terry Tamminen
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Washington, D.C., : Island Press/Shearwater Books, c2006
ISBN	9781597265355 1597265357 9781435606395 1435606396
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (273 p.)
Disciplina	333.8/232
Soggetti	Energy consumption - Environmental aspects Energy policy - United States Petroleum industry and trade Middle East History, Military
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 215-251) and index.
Nota di contenuto	The breath of our fathers -- A losing proposition -- Desperate enterprise -- All that glitters -- Wealth rather seems to possess them -- Worse poison to men's souls -- Postcards from the year -- The quality of mercy -- Epilogue : the seventh generation.
Sommario/riassunto	Lives Per Gallon is a searing indictment of America's oil economy and a powerful prescription for change. With tales of corporations knowingly exposing citizens to poisonous chemicals, conspiring to derail public transportation, and purposely disabling their own pollution controls, Terry Tamminen builds a powerful case against powerful industries. And he shows how demanding accountability could help pave the road to sustainable energy. Offering real-world solutions, Tamminen poses a vital challenge: kick the oil habit or continue paying in lives per gallon.