

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910967522203321
Titolo	Debating moderate Islam : the geopolitics of Islam and the West / / edited by M.A. Muqtedar Khan
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Salt Lake City, : University of Utah Press, c2007
ISBN	1-60781-960-0
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (161 p.)
Collana	Utah Series in Turkish and Islamic Studies
Classificazione	11.84
Altri autori (Persone)	KhanM. A. Muqtedar
Disciplina	320.5/57
Soggetti	Islam and world politics Islam - 21st century Islamic renewal Religious pluralism - Islam Islamic countries Relations Europe Europe Relations Islamic countries
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	""Contents""; ""Preface""; ""1. Debating Moderate Islam""; ""2. Power or Ideology: What Islamists Choose Will Determine Their Future""; ""3. Moderate Muslims: A Mainstream of Modernists, Islamists, Conservatives, and Traditionalists""; ""4. Freedom and Security: Necessary Conditions for Moderation""; ""5. Moderate Islam: A Product of American Extremism""; ""6. Islamic Democracy and Moderate Muslims: The Straight Path Runs through the Middle""; ""7. Blaming the United States, Israel, or Capitalism Is Not the Solution"" ""8. The Clash of Ignorances: The War on Terror Must Not Compromise Muslim Rights""""9. The Erdogan Experiment in Turkey Is the Future""; ""10. Though Muslims Exist Today, Islam Does Not""; ""11. Moderate Muslims Are the Key to the Future of Islam and American-Muslim Relations""; ""12. In God We Trust: The Prospects for the Future of Islam and the West Are Positive""; ""13. Liberal Islam versus Moderate Islam: Elusive Moderates and the Siege Mentality""; ""14. Reflections on Ijtihad and Moderate Islam""; ""15. Culture Talk: Six Debates That Shape the Discourse on "Good" Muslims"" ""16. The Transformation of a Turkish Islamic Movement: From Identity

Politics to Policy""17. Reflections on the Debate""; ""18. Defining a Moderate""; ""19. Accommodating "Moderation": A Return to Authenticityor Recourse to Heresy?""; ""Contributors""; ""Index""

Sommario/riassunto

Utah Series in Middle East Studies After 9/11, many Americans took the view that the attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon were the leading edge of a new war: Islam versus the West.
