Sommario/riassunto	Keith Donnellan is one of the major figures in 20th century philosophy of language and mind, a key member of the highly influential group that altered the course of philosophy of language and mind around 1970. An innovative philosopher, Donnellan's primary contributions were published in article form rather than books. This volume presents a highly focused collection of articles by Donnellan, beginning with his 1966 groundbreaking ""Reference and Definite Descriptions,"" historically the first move in the direct reference direction. In the late sixties and early 1970's, the philosophy of language
