Nota di contenuto	Introduction: discourse and cognitive perspectives on language learning / Lucy Pickering and Vyvyan Evans -- Culture, gender, ethnicity, identity in discourse: exploring cross-cultural communicative competence in American university contexts / Catherine Evans Davies -- Discourse management strategies revisited: building on Tyler's early insights regarding international teaching assistant comprehensibility / Gordon Tapper, Grazyna Drzazga, Maria Mendoza and Jennifer C. Grill -- Senior confessions: narratives of self-disclosure / Diana Boxer -- The speech went on (and on) as Kerry dozed off (*and off): a conceptual grammar approach to on and off / Susan Strauss, Heesun Chang and Jungwan Yoon -- The role of embodiment in the semantic analysis of phrasal verbs: a corpus-based study / Narges Mahpeykar -- Synesthetic metaphors of sound: an analysis of the semantics of English and Japanese adjectives / Mari Tsujita -- Conceptual vs. inter-lexical polysemy: an LCCM theory approach / Vyvyan Evans -- Formulaicity and context in second language pragmatics / Kathleen Bardovi-Harlig -- What is happened? your Amazon.com order has shipped: overpassivization and unaccusativity as L2 construction learning / Lourdes Ortega, Sang-Ki Lee and Munehiko Miyata -- Effects of L2 exposure on the use of discourse devices in L2 storytelling / Yuko Nakahama -- The use of hedging devices in L2 legal writing: a cognitive functional perspective / Natalia Dolgova -- Afterword: the theoretical and applied foundations of Andrea Tyler's approach to the study of language / Salvatore Attardo and Lucy Pickering.

Sommario/riassunto

"Language Learning, Discourse and Cognition: Studies in the tradition of Andrea Tyler comprises a collection of original empirically and theoretically motivated studies at the nexus of discourse analysis, cognitive linguistics and second language learning. The thematic relationships between these subfields and links between the studies are laid out in introductory and concluding chapters. This edited volume is intended for both researchers and taught graduates in linguistics and second language learning and teaching"--

Nota di contenuto	Introduction -- Causes and Mechanisms of Casing Deformation -- Types and Forming Conditions of Fluid Channels -- Assessment and Prediction of Fault/Fracture Slip Risk -- Quantitative Analysis Technique of Fault Slippage and Casing Deformation -- Casing Deformation Early Warning Technology -- Casing Deformation Control Technology -- Casing Deformation Prevention Technology.
Sommario/riassunto	This book systematically clarifies the casing deformation prevention and control technologies based on the integration of research area of both geology and engineering. These technologies incorporate reservoir geomechanics, casing deformation mechanics and hydraulic fracturing mechanics. It covers fluid channel-fault activation model and casing deformation mechanisms, types and formation conditions of fluid channels, casing deformation risk prediction technology, casing deformation early warning technology based on microseismic and fracturing treatment curves, casing deformation control technology based on hydraulic fracturing simulation and casing deformation prevention strategy. This book is a valuable reference for both technical personnel and graduate students working in petroleum engineering, rock mechanics and reservoir geomechanics.

Sommario/riassunto	Cet essai propose une forme de pensee comme celle des theoriciens des quanta qui, ne pouvant experimenter sur l'invisible, ont developpe la representation d'objets complexes a partir d'un modele revisable : l'experience de pensee ideale. Cette modelisation, sans application directe, permettrait d'etablir entre chercheurs des ' passerelles' de pensee, a condition de rester coherentes, accessibles et de respecter une epistemologie. Ce texte invite le lecteur, professionnel ou chercheur individuel, a s'interioriser et a voyager dans la complexite humaine.
