

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910970698103321
Autore	Payne Phillip G
Titolo	Dead last : the public memory of Warren G. Harding's scandalous legacy // Phillip G. Payne
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Athens, : Ohio University Press, c2009
ISBN	0-8214-4289-9
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (282 p.)
Disciplina	973.91/4092 B
Soggetti	Presidents - United States Political corruption - United States - History - 20th century United States Politics and government 1921-1923
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. [257]-261) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Questions asked -- The president's hometown -- Commemorating the tragedy of Warren Harding -- My damned biographers -- The shadow of William Estabrook Chancellor -- He-harlot -- Harding Alley -- Dead last.
Sommario/riassunto	In 'Dead Last', Payne explores how Harding's name became synonymous with corruption, cronyism, and incompetence and how it is used to this day as an example of what a president should not be.