

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910971461603321
Autore	Walker Decker F
Titolo	Fundamentals of curriculum : passion and professionalism / / Decker F. Walker
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Mahwah, N.J., : L. Erlbaum Associates, 2003
ISBN	1-135-66117-0 1-282-59621-7 9786612596216 1-4106-0625-2
Edizione	[2nd ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (358 p.)
Disciplina	375/.001/0973
Soggetti	Curriculum planning - United States Education - Curricula - United States
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 319-328) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Book Cover; Title; Copyright; Brief Table of Contents; Table of Contents; Preface; Acknowledgments; PART 1: PERSPECTIVES; CHAPTER ONE: Curriculum Work; CHAPTER TWO: Traditions of Curriculum Practice; CHAPTER THREE: Curriculum Theories; CHAPTER FOUR: Curriculum Reform; CHAPTER FIVE: Curriculum Studies; PART 2: PRACTICE; CHAPTER SIX: Curriculum Practice; CHAPTER SEVEN: Improving Curriculum Practice; CHAPTER EIGHT: Improving Classroom Curriculum; CHAPTER NINE: Improving School Curriculum; References; Index
Sommario/riassunto	Graduate students and teachers of introductory graduate courses in curriculum have many textbooks to choose from. What is special about Fundamentals of Curriculum: Passion and Professionalism, Second Edition? Content and approach: Clear, focused, and tightly structured, this text provides essential information and resources education professionals need to effectively deal with the urgent and important curriculum problems they face in schools today. Part I ("Perspectives") looks at curriculum from five fundamental perspectives: curriculum work, traditions of curriculum

