

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910973347503321
Autore	Yamauchi Ayumu
Titolo	Fiscal Sustainability : : The Case of Eritrea / / Ayumu Yamauchi
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Washington, D.C. : , : International Monetary Fund, , 2004
ISBN	9786613774705 9781462351114 1462351115 9781452772509 1452772509 9781281089342 1281089346 9781451890648 1451890648
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	28 p. : ill
Collana	IMF Working Papers
Soggetti	Fiscal policy - Eritrea Debts, External - Eritrea Currency Debt Management Debt Debts, External Debts, Public Economywide Country Studies: Africa Exchange rates Exports and Imports External debt Fiscal Policies and Behavior of Economic Agents: General Fiscal Policy Fiscal policy Fiscal stance Fiscal sustainability Foreign Exchange Foreign exchange International economics International Lending and Debt Problems Macroeconomics Public debt Public finance & taxation

Public Finance
Sovereign Debt
Eritrea Economic policy
Eritrea Economic conditions
Eritrea, The State of

Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 28).
Nota di contenuto	Intro -- Contents -- I. INTRODUCTION -- II. THE IMPORTANCE OF FISCAL SUSTAINABILITY -- III. PUBLIC FINANCES: DEVELOPMENTS AND TRENDS -- IV. RESPONSES TO FISCAL POLICY AND MANAGEMENT -- V. RESTORING SUSTAINABILITY -- ANNEX -- References.
Sommario/riassunto	The paper examines fiscal sustainability issues for the case of Eritrea but has wider implications for addressing fiscal and debt sustainability. It begins with a formal definition and explanation of analytical sustainability indicators, followed by an assessment of the causes of fiscal deficits and their impact on the usual indicators of fiscal and external debt sustainability. The paper then goes beyond the usual analytical indicators by attempting to identify how and through which channels fiscal and other economic policies have affected the behavior of endogenous variables that in one way or another influence sustainability.