Sommario/riassunto	Este libro presenta tres estudios sobre las formas en las que el discurso convencional sobre desarrollo condiciona, modela, e interviene en la vida de los seres humanos y su entorno. Muestra, ademas, como la logica epistemologica que sostiene el discurso sobre el desarrollo permea y excede sus propios limites, alcanzando incluso aquellas propuestas teoricas y practicas que pretenden tomar distancia de este discurso y que se enuncian a si mismas como resistentes. En los tres estudios que componen este libro, se presentan diferentes conceptualizaciones y formas en las que el discurso convencional sobre desarrollo afecta la calidad de vida de las personas que son objeto de politicas publicas, intervenciones gubernamentales e institucionales. La propuesta, finalmente, es poner en evidencia la relacion saber/poder que sostiene el discurso del desarrollo y como este tiene efectos materiales y simbolicos que producen y reproducen condiciones desiguales de existencia.

Sommario/riassunto

In 1992, Congress for the first time explicitly directed the federal agencies making SBIR grants to use commercial potential as a criterion for granting SBIR awards. In response, the Department of Defense developed the SBIR Fast Track initiative, which provides expedited decision-making for SBIR awards to companies that have commitments from outside vendors. To verify the effectiveness of this initiative, the DoD asked the STEP Board to assess the operation of Fast Track. This volume of original field research includes case studies comparing Fast Track and non-Fast Track firms, a large survey of SBIR awardees, and statistical analyses of the impact of regular SBIR and Fast Track awards. Collectively, the commissioned papers and the findings and recommendations represent a significant contribution to our understanding of the SBIR program.
