

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| 1. Record Nr. | UNINA9910974876503321 |
| Titolo | Environmental impacts of transnational corporations in the global south // edited by Paul Cooney and William Sacher Freslon |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa | United Kingdom : , : Emerald Publishing, , [2019] ©2019 |
| ISBN | 9781787560369 1787560368 9781787560345 1787560341 |
| Edizione | [First edition.] |
| Descrizione fisica | 1 online resource (236 pages) |
| Collana | Research in political economy, , 0161-7230 ; ; volume 33 |
| Disciplina | 338.927091724 |
| Soggetti | International business enterprises - Moral and ethical aspects - Developing countries Social responsibility of business - Developing countries Business & Economics - Corporate Finance - General Business ethics & social responsibility |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese |
| Formato | Materiale a stampa |
| Livello bibliografico | Monografia |
| Note generali | Includes index. |
| Nota di contenuto | Prelims -- Introduction -- Part I Extractive industries, social conflict and dispossession in the global south -- Transnational mining and accumulation by dispossession -- Mining giants, indigenous peoples and art: challenging settler colonialism in Northern Australia through story painting -- Ecological-economic narratives for resisting extractive industries in Africa -- Petroleum accidents in the global south -- Part II Environmental conflicts and transnational value chains in the global south -- Transnational corporations, violence and suffering: the environmental, public health and social impacts from comparative case studies in Zimbabwe and Uganda -- Environmental injustice in Northeast Brazil: the Pecem industrial and shipping complex -- Family farming, the environment and the global food chain -- Index. |
| Sommario/riassunto | This volume explores the impact of Transnational Corporations (TNCs) on the environment of the Global South during this period of neoliberal globalization. It develops themes around transnational extractive | activity; the impact of transnational capital on indigenous populations, and the role played by international institutions.,
