Sommario/riassunto	This book analyses how Türkiye and Europe were discursively constructed through the representations of Türkiye in the European Parliament (EP) between 2007 and 2015. By providing an in-depth analysis of the discursive representations of Türkiye in the EP, the book discusses the European perception of Turkish identity and, in turn, reveals the different visions of Europe that these EP discourses relationally construct in Türkiye's de-Europeanization process, compared to its Europeanization process in the 1997-2007 term. This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Political Sociology, International Relations, Discourse Analysis, European Studies, Turkish Studies, and Identity Studies. Sezgi Erdoan is a research administrator in the International Projects Office of Istanbul University, Türkiye. She is an expert in EU- Türkiye relations, discourse studies, and identity in international relations, particularly in the EU, and holds a Ph.D. from the Department of EU Politics and International Relations at Marmara University, Türkiye.
