Sommario/riassunto	Theological Hermeneutics and Daly's verification process offers an original overview of Mary Daly's inputs to the theological hermeneutics from the feminist perspective. In the context of multiple theological methodologies and a growing interest for gender and feminist studies, it provides keys to design relevant approach to theology as a method. This book shows how gender bias affects theological discourses and how gender discourse oriented to the good of women, can be a paradigm of theology and a criterion of the most effective transmission of faith and social transformation. This book is an important read for scholars working in the intersection of theology, gender and feminism, and a great addition to Antonina Wozna's book on Mary Daly's (1928-2010) Theological Method of Ontolinguistic Hermeneutics.
