

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910987795403321
Autore	Martinez Chavez Eva Elizabeth
Titolo	Bicentenario de la Constitución de Jalisco De 1824 : Instituciones y Legado
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Madrid : , : Dykinson, S.L., , 2024 ©2024
ISBN	84-10-70784-5
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (306 pages)
Disciplina	342.7202
Soggetti	Constitutional history - Mexico Church and state - Mexico
Lingua di pubblicazione	Spagnolo
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Nota di contenuto	Intro -- Página en blanco.
Sommario/riassunto	This book commemorates the bicentennial of the Constitution of Jalisco, the first state constitution in Mexico enacted in 1824. It explores the historical, social, and legal impact of the Constitution on the development of Jalisco, the nascent federal republic, and its institutions. Written by a group of legal historians, it examines topics such as justice administration, the relationship between the state and the Catholic Church, public finance, education, and the influence of federal laws on local governance. The book aims to provide an innovative perspective on how national legal frameworks shaped local practices, offering insights into early 19th-century legal and institutional development in Jalisco. Intended for scholars, legal historians, and those interested in Mexican constitutional history, it serves as a tribute to the Constitution's legacy and its role in shaping modern governance in Jalisco and Mexico.