that brought them together. Through this axis it traces the migratory paths of a group of German Jews who, like Levy, left Hamburg to settle in São Paulo. Mônica Raisa Schpun is a Historian at the Center for Colonial and Contemporary Brazilian Studies at the École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales (EHESS), France.
