cohomology -- Concise tables of James numbers and some homotopy of classical Lie groups and associated homogeneous spaces -- An example of a stable splitting: The classifying space of the 4-dim unipotent group -- On the homotopy uniqueness of $BU(2)$ at the prime 2 -- On infinite dimensional spaces that are rationally equivalent to a Bouquet of spheres -- Cohomologically central elements and fusion in groups -- Rational homotopy of the space of homotopy equivalences of a flag manifold -- Rational cohomology and homotopy of spaces with circle action -- On the action of Steenrod powers on polynomial algebras.

Sommario/riassunto

The papers in this collection, all fully refereed, original papers, reflect many aspects of recent significant advances in homotopy theory and group cohomology. From the Contents: A. Adem: On the geometry and cohomology of finite simple groups.- D.J. Benson: Resolutions and Poincaré duality for finite groups.- C. Broto and S. Zarati: On sub- A^* -algebras of H^*V .- M.J. Hopkins, N.J. Kuhn, D.C. Ravenel: Morava K -theories of classifying spaces and generalized characters for finite groups.- K. Ishiguro: Classifying spaces of compact simple Lie groups and p -tori.- A.T. Lundell: Concise tables of James numbers and some homotopy of classical Lie groups and associated homogeneous spaces.- J.R. Martino: An example of a stable splitting: the classifying space of the 4-dim unipotent group.- J.E. McClure, L. Smith: On the homotopy uniqueness of $BU(2)$ at the prime 2.- G. Mislin: Cohomologically central elements and fusion in groups.

Sommario/riassunto	Claudius Claudianus (ca. 370-404 n. Chr.) galt lange vor allem als panegyrischer Chronist des westromischen Kaiserhofs ab 395 n. Chr. Auch die wohl nach seinem Tod unter dem Titel Carmina minora gesammelten kurzeren Gedichte lassen den Panegyriker Claudian erkennen, zeigen jedoch gleichzeitig einen Dichter, der besonders anhand der Beschreibung von Naturmirabilia weitere Facetten seines poetischen Programms prasentiert. Dieses Programm zeichnet sich einerseits durch eine intensive intratextuelle Bezogenheit aus, die unterschiedliche Aspekte eines ausgeprägten ars-natura-Diskurses aufzeigt, in dessen Rahmen die Erzeugnisse einer natura artifex vom poeta artifex Claudian ekphrastisch hochst raffiniert inszeniert werden. Andererseits verdeutlichen intertextuelle Bezüge zu zahlreichen griechischen und lateinischen Dichtern die Einbindung einer Tradition, die ergänzt durch typische Gestaltungsmittel spatantiker Dichtung die programmatische Bedeutung der concordia discors offenbart. Genannte Bestandteile des poetischen Programms Claudians betrachtet die vorliegende Publikation anhand detaillierter Textanalysen und leistet so einen wertvollen Beitrag zur weiteren philologischen Erschließung der Carmina minora.

Sommario/riassunto	"The comprehensive, never-before-published records of a debating society run by free Black men From 1847 until 1858, when "political disadvantages" prompted its dissolution, the Clionian Debating Society, a group of free Black men, met regularly in Charleston, South Carolina. Reconstruction-era leaders such as Henry Cardozo, who would serve in the SC state legislature, and Simeon W. Beaird, who was elected to Georgia's state constitutional convention in 1867, were among its membership. Free Black Charlestonians in Debate brings together the Clonian Society's minutes in a comprehensive scholarly edition, reuniting the two original handwritten volumes that are now housed in the collections of the Charleston Library Society and Duke University. The annotated transcription is supported by an introduction, appendixes summarizing key features of the society's membership and operations, recommendations for further reading, and an index. Made easily accessible for the first time, these minutes represent an important piece of Black intellectual history that offers insight into the educational training of young men of the free Black community in antebellum Charleston, some of whom became religious and political leaders in the Reconstruction South"--
