

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9911004891703321
Autore	Moller Mark
Titolo	Cato Supreme Court Review, 2006-2007
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, : Cato Institute, 2007
ISBN	9786611905200 9781281905208 1281905208 9781933995601 1933995602
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (386 p.)
Disciplina	342
Soggetti	Constitutional law -- United States -- Periodicals Constitutional law -- United States United States. Supreme Court -- Periodicals United States. Supreme Court
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Foreword: The Roberts Court Emerges: Restrained or Active?; Introduction; Challenges to the Rule of Law: Or, Quod Licet Jovi Non Licet Bovi; Death by a Thousand Cuts: Constitutional Wrongs Without Remedies After Wilkie v. Robbins; First Amendment Basics Redux: Buckley v. Valeo to FEC v. Wisconsin Right to Life; When Easy Cases Make Bad Law.; BONG HiTS 4 JESUS: The First Amendment Takes a Hit; Gonzales v. Carhart: An Alternate Opinion; Litigating to Regulate: Massachusetts v.; Narrow Issue of Taxpayer Standing Highlights Wide Divisions Among the Justices The Non-Preferment Principle and the "Racial Tiebreaker" CasesProtecting Consumers From Consumer Protection: Watters v. Wachovia Bank; Weyerhaeuser and the Search for Antitrust's Holy Grail; Punitive Damages and the Supreme Court: A Tragedy in Five Acts; Looking Ahead: October Term 2007; Contributors; Untitled
Sommario/riassunto	Once again, the Cato Supreme Court Review will analyze the most notable cases from the most recent term.

