Sommario/riassunto

This edited book responds to the theoretical vacuum on Community Based Inclusive Development (CBID) and accommodates the learning needs of students, researchers and practitioners looking to understand the conceptual underpinnings and practice dimensions of CBID, while developing new theoretical ground on CBID. Bringing together established and emerging scholars and practitioners, this edited volume seeks to:

- Offer a theoretical, critical and interdisciplinary introduction for students, academics and practitioners working in CBID in the Global South.
- Build new theory and knowledge that can inform research and practice.
- Explore in-depth a range of issues through a critical lens and connect these with CBID.
- Contribute evidence-based material for CBID programming and advocacy and inform the work of mainstream community development practitioners.

Jörg Weber (PhD) is Senior Global Advisor in Community Based Inclusive Development (CBID) for CBM Christian Blind Mission, and Honorary Research Affiliate at the University of Cape Town, South Africa. He has over 20 years of experience advising community programmes as well as UN bodies, professional organizations and government agencies in inclusive community development, rehabilitation, education and inclusive livelihoods. Shaun Grech (PhD) is Global Technical Lead on Inclusive Social Protection for CBM Christian Blind Mission, Honorary Associate Professor at the University of Cape Town, South Africa and Affiliate Associate Professor in International Relations at the University of Malta. He is also editor-in-chief of the international journal 'Disability and the Global South' (DGS).
