Sommario/riassunto	Lawyer4rights is a european project, funded by the European Union within the framework of the justice programme, created and developed by a consortium composed by the Bulgarian Lawyers for Human Rights Foundation, Italian Association of Lawers (Associazione nazionale Forense, ANF), the Milan Bar Association, the Italian Federation of Liberal Professions (Fondazione Confprofessionisti), the University of Burgos (Spain) and the General council of Spanish Lawyers (Consejo General de la Abogacia Espanola). The study aims at analyzing the role of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union facing emerging challenges such as migration. Nowday it is evident that lawers can play a relevant social role in the application of international legislative instrument to protect the fundamental rights. Consequently the main scope of this project was to implement a program of training for legal practitioners with seminars, on-line trainings and written materials in order to strengthen the protection of fundamental rights.
