Sommario/riassunto	Xenophon (ca. 430 to ca. 354 BCE) was a wealthy Athenian and friend of Socrates. He left Athens in 401 and joined an expedition including ten thousand Greeks led by the Persian governor Cyrus against the Persian king. After the defeat of Cyrus, it fell to Xenophon to lead the Greeks from the gates of Babylon back to the coast through inhospitable lands. Later he wrote the famous vivid account of this 'March Up-Country' (Anabasis); but meanwhile he entered service under the Spartans against the Persian king, married happily, and joined the staff of the Spartan king, Agesilaus. But Athens was at war with Sparta in 394 and so exiled Xenophon. The Spartans gave him an estate near Elis where he lived for years writing and hunting and educating his sons. Reconciled to Sparta, Athens restored Xenophon to honour but he preferred to retire to Corinth. Xenophon's Anabasis is a true story of remarkable adventures. Hellenica, a history of Greek affairs from 411 to 362, begins as a continuation of Thucydides' account. There are four works on Socrates (collected in Volume IV of the Loeb Xenophon edition). In Memorabilia Xenophon adds to Plato's picture of Socrates from a different viewpoint. The Apology is an interesting complement to Plato's account of Socrates' defense at his trial. Xenophon's Symposium portrays a dinner party at which Socrates speaks of love; and Oeconomicus has him giving advice on household management and married life. Cyropaedia, a historical romance on the education of Cyrus (the Elder), reflects Xenophon's ideas about rulers and

government; the Loeb edition is in two volumes. We also have his Hiero, a dialogue on government; Agesilaus, in praise of that king; Constitution of Lacedaemon (on the Spartan system); Ways and Means (on the finances of Athens); Manual for a Cavalry Commander; a good manual of Horsemanship; and a lively Hunting with Hounds. The Constitution of the Athenians, though clearly not by Xenophon, is an interesting document on politics at Athens. These eight books are collected in the last of the seven volumes of the Loeb Classical Library edition of Xenophon.

Sommario/riassunto

Nostalgiefilter aus, Forschungsbrille auf: Wenn Fans zu Forschenden werden, sind Grenzüberschreitungen inklusive. Citizen Science ermöglicht diesen Seiten- und Perspektivwechsel, der sowohl in der Wissenschaft als auch in der Bürger:innenschaft zu einem produktiven Wissens- und Erfahrungsaustausch führt. Unter dem Titel #KultOrtDUS arbeiten Medien- und Kulturwissenschaftler der Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf gemeinsam mit Bürger:innen an dem Aufbau eines Archivs der Medienkulturgeschichte Düsseldorfs. Düsseldorf als Zentrum von Punkmusik, New Wave und Aktionskunst fungiert dabei als urbanen Forschungsfeld, auf dem die Disziplin der "Citizen Science" wissenschaftspraktisch ausprobiert wird. Die Publikation fasst erste Ergebnisse dieses Forschungsprojekts zusammen, indem sie sich auf die Spurensuche zwischen Fans, Prosumer:innen, Bürger:innen und Urban Legends begibt und Perspektiven der Citizen Science- an die Fanforschung anknüpft. Den wissenschaftlichen Meta-Diskurs begleitet ein illustrativ-experimenteller Ansatz, der das kreative Potenzial aus der Forschung im Umfeld von Citizen Science sichtbar macht.

When fans become researchers, crossing boundaries is part of it. Citizen science makes it possible to change sides and perspectives, which can lead to productive exchanges of knowledge and experience in scholarship and society. This volume discusses the possibilities and limits of citizen science in media and cultural studies, and is the first to bring together the two disciplines of citizen science and fan research.
