Conclusions; Bibliography; Index; Index of Greek Terms; General Index A study of animal sacrifice within Greek paganism, Judaism, and Sommario/riassunto Christianity during the period of their interaction between about 100 BC and AD 200. After a vivid account of the realities of sacrifice in the Greek East and in the Jerusalem Temple (up to AD 70), Maria-Zoe Petropoulou explores the attitudes of early Christians towards this practice. Contrary to other studies in this area, she demonstrates that the process by which Christianity finally separated its own cultic codefrom the strong tradition of animal sacrifice was a slow and difficult one. Petropoulou places special emphasis on th
