

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996211611903316
Autore	Nieuwenhuyze Inge van
Titolo	Getting by in Europe's urban labor markets [[electronic resource]] : Senegambian migrants' strategies for survival, documentation and mobility / / Inge Van Nieuwenhuyze
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Amsterdam, : Amsterdam University Press, 2009
ISBN	1-282-06793-1 9786612067938 90-485-0635-2
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (242 p.)
Collana	IMISCOE dissertations
Disciplina	338.94 350
Soggetti	Foreign workers - Europe Senegambians Electronic books. Barcelona (Spain) Emigration and immigration Antwerp (Belgium) Emigration and immigration Gambia Emigration and immigration Senegal Emigration and immigration
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Table of contents; List of tables and figures; Abbreviations and terms; 1 Understanding labour migration trajectories; 2 Embarking on an explanatory framework; 3 Data collection: Interviews and participant observation in a hidden population; 4 How migration from Senegal and the Gambia became an institution; 5 Survival strategies as an undocumented migrant; 6 Documentation strategies as an undocumented migrant; 7 Mobility strategies as a legal migrant; 8 Conclusions; Appendix A Topic list for questionnaire; Appendix B List of key informants; Appendix C Letter; Notes; References; Abstract
Sommario/riassunto	A comparative study of how economic and political differences between Antwerp and Barcelona influence the life-course trajectories of Senegalese and Gambian migrants.

