

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996383103303316
Titolo	The admonisher admonished [[electronic resource]] : in, a modest and impartial narrative of the proceedings of the ecclesiastical court, against James Jones citizen of London, of the parish of St. Bartholomew Exchange. Being a true account of matter of fact, from his citation to Doctors Commons, to their taking out the writ of excommunicato capiendo against him. And also an account of the several ways made use of for the taking off the said writ. With useful observations upon several particular passages and statutes. Dedicated to the worshipful Doctor Pinfold
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for Thomas Malthus at the Sun in the Poultry, 1683
Edizione	[The second edition corrected and amended.]
Descrizione fisica	[4], 18 p
Altri autori (Persone)	JonesJames <fl. 1683-1684.>
Soggetti	Excommunication - Church of England
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	[4] p: To the right worshipful Thomas Pinfold, doctor of laws, and official to the Arch-Deacon of London. Signed: James Jones. Reproduction of the original in the University of Texas, Austin Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0179