Titolo	A just apologie for an abused armie [[electronic resource] ] : Shewing, the unreasonableness of that bad opinion that many are of late falne into, concerning the Parliaments army, under the command of his Excellencie Sir Tho: Fairfax. Wherein the reader may take notice, 1. That the New Modell was brought to passe by a divine hand, and that God is eminently present with it. 2. That it hath been, and is a great blessing to the kingdome. 3. That therefore (what ever some doe unworthily conceit) it needs not to be re-modelled, till the Parliament may with safety disband their armies, and through settled peace, turn their swords into plough-shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks. Together with many seasonable advises, cautions, and encouragements, applyable to severall sorts of men, in these our distracted times. // By W.G. an impartiall observer of the Army, and reall well wisher to the whole kingdome
