Autore	Woodward Ezekias <1590-1675.>
Titolo	Foure grand enquiries [[electronic resource]] : I. Whether this whole nation be a church as the Jewish nation was? II. Whether, by priviledge of infant baptism, all are to be admitted to all church-communions, eo-nomine, without making so much as a profession of their faith, or repentance? III. Whether there can be any suspension from, or excommunication out of their church, as now their church-state is. IV. Whether infants borne of parents notorious for their ignorance and prophanenesse; together with their declared enmities and oppositions against the Lord Christ, may be admitted to baptism, upon this account, that the whole church are their guardians?
